

SEATTLE CHILDREN'S SAC MEMBERS

UPDATED JANUARY 1, 2022

JANICE CAMP

Ms. Camp has been a resident of Laurelhurst for five years, and previously of Maple Leaf where she was Chairman of the Maple Leaf Community Council for nearly 10 years. She was a part of the redevelopment of the Northgate south parking lot, covering and redevelopment of the Maple Leaf reservoir, and public art selection and installation. She is interested in how institutions, such as Children's, integrate into and engage with their neighbors.

Ms. Camp has graduate degrees in nursing and industrial hygiene, and is recently retired from the University of Washington School of Public Health, Department of Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences faculty where she managed a departmental consulting group and continuing education group as well as taught several graduate course in industrial hygiene and occupational health and safety.

KIM DALES

Ms. Dales is a resident of Laurelhurst. She is involved in Social Justice, Mobility Outreach International, Windermere Foundation and DESC. The issues that of most concern to her include the homeless population in Seattle and keeping Seattle affordable. She chose to be on the Committee because Seattle Children's is unique in its geographical location and wants the surrounding neighborhoods to have minimal impact from a growing infrastructure combined with state of the art patient care.

Ms. Dales was a Registered Nurse for approximately 20 years working in the outpatient day surgery at Seattle Children's for 10 years. Her husband is a Pediatric Orthopedic surgeon at Seattle Children's. Currently, Ms. Dales is a managing broker at Windermere Real Estate Company.

JOHN ELLIS

Mr. Ellis has been a resident of the Laurelhurst neighborhood since 2011, where he lives with his family of four. He is active in the community through various sports leagues coaching both soccer and basketball, and YMCA Y Guides. Mr. Ellis has a general admiration of the work Seattle Children's provides, with a desire to understand future expansion and development of the hospital and grounds and how this growth will impact our Laurelhurst community.

Mr. Ellis has an agronomy background where he has worked on the horticultural side of golf course maintenance management. He is currently employed as a business development manager for a national commercial landscaping company.

TRAFFORD GOOD

Mr. Good have lived in Bryant since 2006 and a Seattle native. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Astro-Physics and minors in Applied Mathematics and History. He also have a degree in Construction Management from the University of Washington., and a LEED accredited. For the past 10 years, Mr. Good has specialized in the design & construction of Light Rail power, navigation and communications systems with various rail transit authorities up and down the west coast.

SHELLEY HARTNETT

Ms. Hartnett has lived in Hawthorne Hills for many years with husband. Shelley's neighborhood participation began in the Hawthorne Hills Community Council as Secretary and VP.

Shelley was a Block Watch Caption for many years. She was a member of the Citizen's Advisory Committee (CAC) for the Major Institutional Master Plan for Seattle Children's Hospital. At the University of Washington Medical Center she had been a Nuclear Medicine/PET Technologist for the last three decades representing Nuclear Medicine Technologists nationally as the President of the Society of Nuclear Medicine Molecular Imaging Technologist Section.

Shelley remains interested in crime prevention, neighborhood, public/pedestrian safety.

MITCHELL HYMOWITZ (ALTERNATE)

Mr. Hymowitz have been a Bryant resident and homeowner for 29 years and lived in Seattle since 1986. His home is about 1.5 miles north of Seattle Children's. Mr. Hymowitz have been self-employed for the past 29 years as a consulting CFO to start-up companies in and around the Seattle area. His client ranges from medical devices and pharmaceutical development to power toothbrushes, to Software as a Service (SaaS), mental health counseling, long-term care insurance, etc.

JENNIFER KELTY (ALTERNATE)

Ms. Kelty have served as the Executive Director of the Children's Center (TCC) at Burke Gilman Gardens, a nonprofit, licensed early learning program and full-day childcare center for children ages 1-6, located in the Burke Gilman Community Roots Housing complex north of Seattle Children's on Sand Point Way.

For the past ten years, Ms. Kelty served as the Board Chair for the Burke Gilman Place Public Development Authority (PDA) and have been an active member of the board since joining TCC in 2007. Ms. Kelty is also a part-time Social Worker for the Department of Children, Youth and Families and completing the Executive Master's in Public Administration degree program at the University of Washington.

MYRIAM MULLER

Ms. Muller is a resident of Laurelhurst.

JUDITH NIELSEN

Ms. Nielsen is a resident of Laurelhurst.

WENDY PAUL

Ms. Paul is a Pharmacist at Seattle Children's.

PAM RENNA

KEN SPARKS

Mr. Sparks live in Inverness and is a long-time member and past co-chair of the Northeast District Council for over 10 years current president of Friends of Magnuson Park.

Mr. Sparks had several years' experience in planning, scheduling, cost control for the Chicago Public Works capital projects. Mr. Sparks graduated from UW with a BS in construction administration and a BS in accounting. He has 35 years of financial and investment management experience from Morgan Stanley.

Mr. Sparks passions include travelling (nationwide and 40 countries over 3 million miles logged) running 26 marathons and founder of Crazylegs Run.

DR. GINA TRASK

Dr. Trask is a resident of Laurelhurst.

ADAM VRAVES

Adam has lived on the eastern border of Seattle Children's hospital in the Laurelhurst neighborhood since 2011 with his wife, Yingzi. He is a member of the Laurelhurst Beach Club and participates in several business and technology related community events each year. He is particularly interested in effective strategies for sustainable growth and transportation activities in and around Seattle Children's.

Adam works at Intellectual Ventures in Bellevue where he leads new product and service initiatives as Sr. Manager for Revenue Programs. In this role he works across the organization to identify innovative ways to collaborate with strategic customers. Prior to Intellectual Ventures, Adam spent 6 years working for Deloitte in San Francisco, managing a variety of consulting relationships.

Adam has a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Washington with concentrations in both Marketing and Information Systems. In his spare time he enjoys gardening, traveling, and endurance sports.

JENNIFER DOLAN-WALDMAN

Ms. Dolan-Waldman has lived in Laurelhurst for five years after moving to Seattle from the east coast to be closer to her children in Seattle and California. She is a retired educator with a doctorate in education administration and policy. Her previous roles have included middle school principal, assistant superintendent for curriculum and as a college professor for pre- and in-service teachers. While living in NY she was the president of her neighborhood community association and was elected to the local school board.

Ms. Dolan-Waldman has also taught English as a Second Language classes for many years and is currently volunteering at Casa Latina in Seattle. She also works with the Elizabeth Gregory Home, a center for homeless women located in the U District. In addition, she is a Master Gardener, providing gardening advice at community gatherings and helps to maintain the gardens at Ronald McDonald House.

KAREN WOLF (INTERIM CHAIR)

Ms. Wolf has been a resident of the Bryant Community since 1989. Currently, she is an Urban Planner for King County and a member of the American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP). She is the current chair of the SAC and a former chair of the Citizen's Advisory Committee (CAC). The particular issues she is interested in is how Seattle Children's can grow and thrive in a way that benefits the community as a whole.

SUNG YANG

Mr. Yang is currently a small business owner and public affairs consultant. Mr. Yang worked at King County (King County Executive Dow Constantine's office), City of Seattle (Seattle City Light, Mayor Greg Nickels, and Seattle City Councilmember Martha Choe), State of Washington (Department of Community, Trade and Economic Development, now Department of Commerce).

Mr. Yang also practiced law and taught public policy at Seattle University.

EDNA SHIM (EX OFFICIO) – SEATTLE CHILDREN'S

NELSON PESIGAN (EX OFFICIO) – CITY OF SEATTLE DEPARTMENT OF NEIGHBORHOODS

ALLISON WHITWORTH (EX OFFICIO) – CITY OF SEATTLE DEPARTMENT OF CONSTRUCTION
& INSPECTIONS